(a) whether the University of Delhi has taken any decision to open a faculty of Homoeopathy for the purpose of affiliation of Nehru Homoeopathic Medical College with the University of Delhi; if not, what are the reasons therefor;

(b) since when this matter has been pending for consideration of Academic Council of the University of Delhi;

(c) what time the Department of Education have allowed to the Academic Council for consideration of the case for affiliation of the said College to the University of Delhi;

(d) when the meeting of Faculty of Medical Sciences of the University of Delhi was held in this regard; and

(e) the decision taken thereat?

THE MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI P. SHIV SHANKER): (a) to (e) The proposal for affiliation of the Nehru Homoeopathic Medical College, Delhi was considered by the Faculty of Medical Sciences on 10.12.85. The Faculty felt that there was need for the Homoeopathic System of Medicine in the University. It recommended that the existing Faculty of Ayurvedic and Unani System of Medicine be renamed as Faculty of Traditional and Allied Systems of Medicine, of which Homoeopathy could be a part. This recommendation has been on the agenda of the Academic Council of the University since August, 1986. However, according to the University it could not be taken up for consideration by the Academic Council due to other priority matters. The agenda item would be taken up for consideration on a priority basis in the next meeting of the Academic Council which is likely to be held in April, 1989.
